46 brave souls endured Saturday's wild westerlies which had gusts ranging from 50 to 85 knots during the day, obviously making golf a very difficult game to play. Sam Edmonds played a remarkable round to win the Monthly Medal with an outstanding 66 nett, the only player to break his handicap on a day where a nett 81 was good enough to win a ball. Mick Barrett's 70 nett to win A Grade was no less remarkable, as this wily veteran had many less shots to play with—he was a clear winner with David Matt and Peter Wilton 4 shots back. Mick Carling managed his game beautifully to win B Grade with his 74 nett, just ahead of another veteran, Noel Hughes, with Adam Wallace third with his 77 nett. Anthony Charlesworth easily won C Grade with his 71 nett, with Mick Lutovac back to the winner's list as runner up with his 75 nett, and Glenn Lockwood third with his 76 nett. Hopefully this week's weather will be more enjoyable after Saturday's wild winds and Thursday's wet, nasty weather. Our course is looking fantastic after some wonderful caring work from our team of volunteers—our greenkeeper Sean returns to work this week so please take the time to welcome him back.
