Saturday's Branxton Pro Shop Sponsored 2BBB plus individual in conjunction Golf Day was thoroughly enjoyed by all playing members with some excellent scores recorded. Ben Bridge and Corey Lamb combined beautifully to win the day's event with 73 pts—a score which included an outstanding round of golf from Corey who had 6 birdies in his 5 under par round. Playing from a +3 handicap Corey has to go under par every round and he seemingly achieves this mark with unbelievable regularity around the tight Branxton course. He also won the A Grade Nearest the pin! Chris Zawirski and Reece Caldwell finished runner up a point behind with Lee Hunt and Ted Zawirski third on 71 pts. Lee has been playing very consistently of late with his individual 39 pts testament of his good play. Hugh Dilley had the round of the day to win the individual event with an outstanding 42 pts from Dave Hodges with an excellent 40 pts and Richard Crooks finding some form to finish third with 39 pts. Lee Jackson and Robert Miller won the NTPins in their respective grades. All players won a ball so generously sponsored by our Club Professional, Marcus Ryter who incidentally finished 8th with his playing partner Mark Moylan. The annual Par 3 Championships is scheduled for Boxing Day with many places still available. This is now a registered club championship event with all scores also recorded on Golf Link—the course will only have a course slope rating of 90 for this event so be prepared to play off some significantly lower handicaps. Good luck to everyone and on behalf of Branxton Golf Club we wish you a very happy Christmas—hopefully with your extended families.
