Balls 17 Distributed down to score: 33

Saturday's stableford competition, played in some drizzly weather proved to be quite a challenge for most golfers with this round being the first round of the Summer Cup. Dave Hodges won A Grade with his pleasing 37 pts, just ahead of the father/son pairing of Joshua and Mick Tracey with fine rounds of 36 pts, on a day when 33 pts was needed to win a ball. Reece Caldwell won B Grade with the day's equal best stableford score of 39 pts, on a countback from former Club Captain Murray Johanson with the same score, with Eddie Garland finding some form to finish third with his excellent 38 pts. Tim Lane prevailed in C Grade with his 34 pts, just ahead of Steve Primmer's 33 pts, with Robert Miller finishing a surprising third with his 28 pts. Robert Biles proved to be the sharp shooter of the day with two nearest the pins on the 2nd and 4th, with Ben Bridge and Peter Wilton hitting the best shots to the other par threes.
