The heavy conditions after Thursday's extra rain ensured that all golfers were thoroughly tested for Saturday's Monthly Medal, especially since the Club Captain picked a few interesting pin placements. The winning scores reflected the difficulties with a nett 79 only needed to win a ball. Doug Elphick won the overall Monthly Medal with the day's best nett score of 71, an excellent effort with a course that is slowly drying out, with no run and all shots requiring precise shot making. Peter Mackenzie won A Grade with his nett 73, on a countback from the evergreen Mick Tracey. Michael Carling won B Grade with his nett 73, two strokes ahead of Bobby Hale's 75. Garry Taylor won C Grade with his 74, also on a countback from Andrew Keogh. The shot of the day undoubtedly belonged to Mick Martin on the difficult 13th, finishing only 85cm from the hole—a great shot. Steve Eccles won the Pro's NTP, adding another $74 to his account. Club Captain Steve wants to remind everyone that the Round 2 Singles Knockout has to be played by the 28th May and the rescheduled Peter Matthews Day is next Saturday. On another note, Bob Biles finally retired from the NSW Police Force during the week after serving 33 years as a general duties police officer, the majority of which were spent serving the communities of Singleton and Branxton/Greta, after joining the NSW Police Force on the 29th October, 1989. We wish Bob a happy retirement and congratulate him on his wonderful career with the NSW Police Force. He can now spend more time on the golf course so look out -his long drives and deft short game will ensure his name appears in many future golf reports.
