Marg Hunt had a sensational conclusion to her round to win the "Score of the Day" and the Ladies Competition with her 29 pts—a score which included 14 pts for the last 5 holes, easily winning her the best score of the day. Paul Johansen was very surprised to win Division 1 with his 27 pts, a score that often misses out on winning a ball. Everyone seemed to struggle – maybe there were too many late nights as the course played quite well throughout the day. Daryl Sheppard finished runner up with his 26 pts after having played little golf of late, with Captain Graham Sheldon and the ever-consistent Peter Conroy filling the minor placings on a countback. 25 pts was needed to win a ball. Pip Lancaster won Division 2 with a fine 29 pts, only on a countback from Barney Ward and Richard Chalmers. The 3 of them had the same last 5 holes, so Captain Graham had some calculating to do to decide the winner. Pip has been a topic of conversation quite regularly of late, especially on Saturday's, with this win ensuring he remains in the limelight. He also kept up his recent run of birdies by having another one today. 23pts were needed to win a ball in Division 2. Leeanne Daniels (26 pts) and Anne Howell (25 pts) filled the minor placings behind Marg Hunt in the Ladies Competition. Jim Sheedy, Peter Conroy and Leeanne Daniels were the sharpshooters for the day. On another note, John Burgess, playing with Reece Caldwell, Lee and Marg Hunt, had a difficult day with Reece giving him grief all day—"tongue in cheek"- I'm sure John will pay him back in the near future!
