A small field of keen golfers took to Branxton golf course after a few days of steady and welcome rain. While the rain was very welcome, the large volume of water in the creek meant that the 1st green was inaccessible at the start of play, and the competition was changed to a stableford event. Robert Biles took the win in A grade with a very good score of 36 points, one ahead of Greg Tearle on 35 points. Both players also picked up an NTP, with Greg's shot to the 11th landing much closer to the hole than his tee shot on the 2nd, which landed much closer to the 5th hole than the 2nd hole. Bobby Hale had a steady 33 points to take out B grade from Mick Carling, who also picked up an NTP, on a countback. Bobby was quite pleased with his efforts as he noted that he has had 2 weeks of stableford in a row with no wipes. Geoff Geason was the mud runner for the day with an excellent 38 points to take out C grade and score of the day. Brett Trezise took the runners up prize with 31 points. Pip Lancaster was one of the few players to find the 13th green but was closer than anyone else to claim the NTP, while Murray Kingston finished well to take the Pro NTP, commenting that he only seems to do well on the Pro NTP hole when there is a small field.
