47 players faced the starter on Thursday with much lower scores recorded than usual. Di Goodare had the Score of the Day (and she was the only player to beat their handicap across the whole field) in winning the Ladies Competition with 30 pts. Wayne Oliver won Division 1 with his 26 pts, just ahead of his playing partner, Gary Train, with 25 pts. Murray Kingston (24 pts) and Craig Howe (23 pts). Jeff Jones's 28 pts was good enough to win Division 2, with Alan Cannon back in form, finishing runner up with his 27 pts. Bill Smith and Robert Brooks (25 pts) filled the minor placings. Leanne Daniels finished runner up in the Ladies with her 24 pts with Robyn Friis third on 22 pts. There are no Nearest the Pins results for this week.
