46 players competed in Thursday's Stableford at Branxton Golf Club with Club President John Atton having the Score of the Day in winning Division 2 with his excellent 31 pts. Mick Barrett had 31 pts as well in winning Division 1 but was beaten on a very close countback as they both had 11 pts on the last 5 holes. Neil Bridge was runner up in Division 1 with his 29 pts, with 25 pts needed to win a ball. Wayne Oliver was runner up in Division 2 with a very tidy 30 pts, whilst 23 pts was good enough to win a ball. The Ladies Competition was very close with Di Goodare winning on a countback with her 29 pts, just ahead of Robyn McCarthy after they both had 12 pts for the closing 5 holes. Di Goodare (28 pts) and Jane Johansen (27 pts) showed how close the Ladies Competition was on the day. The Nearest the pins were shared between 4 players. Peter Conroy (now on a South American holiday) still narrowly leads the Wombat Leaderboard with 14 balls, just ahead of Murray Kingston.
