Thursday's 9 hole Stableford was the precursor to the 2024 Christmas Lunch. With 46 starters for the event, there were many who enjoyed this festive get together. It was also the first week for the new Captain, Murray Kingston, who has taken over from Graeme Sheldon, who did a fine job with the Captaincy role over the last 12 months. The highlight of the day belongs to the 2024 Vets Champion, Greg Noble, who had his first hole in one on the temporary 4th hole. Its always a very memorable achievement so well done Greg. The winner of the day's 9 hole stableford event was Peter Sekulich, recording 21 pts, making his weekly trip from Bonnell's Bay on the lake a very worthwhile day. Ray Showman was runner up with 20 pts, a score which included a nearest the pin on the 2nd, with Nerida Busch third with 19 pts. 21 players won a ball with Carol Miller (2nd), Jan Davidson (18th), Ray Showman (2nd) and Mick Barrett (18th) winning the Nearest the pins.
