A heavy fog greeted golfers for today's round. It hung around for the entire morning, with occational misty showers. In truth, conditions were very pleasant for golf, although there was very little run on the course, due to the wet.

Several players recorded today's winning score of 29pts, but the Score of the Day, belonged to Rod Williams, from Division 2. Closely followed by, Paul Anderson with 28pts. After countbacks, the winner of Division 1 was Tim Whitney on 29pts, followed by Peter MacKenzie, also on 29pts. Craig Howe unluckily relegated to the ball rundown, with the same score. New member, Jen Salna, won the Ladies Division with 25pts, and topped off her day with a NTP prize on the 2nd/11th hole. Jan Davidson came in runner up, for the second week in a row, with 23pts.

Congratulations to all our Prize winners. Next Thursday's game, is the Millennium Trophy, which is a Single Stableford. The annual Par 3 challenge will be held on the following Thursday, 27th March. This will be an 18 hole stroke event, with a maximum shot cap of 7 strokes per hole.
