It was a day of great excitement and drama at Branxton today. There was great excitement, on the 16th hole, when Tim Whitney chipped in from about 50m, to make an Eagle. The great drama occurred on the 17th hole, when Alanna Howell's electric buggy, switched itself on, and made a beeline for the big dam. Husband, Ian, made a valiant attempt to save the buggy, by running down the hill after it. Had he stuck with running, and not chosen to execute a Commando Roll, maybe he would have made it, but in the end the buggy won the race, and nose dived into the dam. All was recovered and should be ok when dried out.

Mike Ford came in with an excellent score of 32pts to win the day and Division 2, with Alan Cannon runner up on 28pts. Tim Whitney came in with 30pts to win Division 1, a score kicked along nicely by his Eagle. Peter Conroy, on 28pts, claimed runner up after a solid back five holes. Di Goodare won the Ladies Division with 25pts, with Jan Davidson runner up on 24pts. Di & Jan added to their day by winning a NTP prize each.

Congratulations to all our Prize winners.
