The final round of the 2025 Men's Club Championships saw some keenly contested golf played on a course set up to allow the best golfer to shine through. Thanks to all players who competed in the championships and congratulations to our prize winners. Thanks again to our volunteers who helped with the setup of the course and the clean up after the storm on Friday night.

Cameron Johanson won his third Club Championship in a row, and fifth overall, comfortably taking out the A grade event by 27 shots. He was able to cruise his way around the course in round 4 and finished the championships with a classy tee shot to take the Pro NTP on the final hole of the tournament. Chris Zawirski took out the nett event after matching his third round score of 79 to edge out Greg Tearle. Robert Biles took the runner up prize in the scratch event. In B grade Mick Barrett proved to be too consistent for the others in the seeded group and shot the best score in round 4 in B grade to win by 8 shots. Ed Garland rounded off a great weekend by taking the nett event after winning the Mug of Mugs on Saturday. Dean Fowler had a steady day out to finish runner up in the scratch event, with Geoff Jones runner up in the nett event. The C grade championship came down to the final hole in one of the closest finishes in a few years between Sam Bridge and Andrew George. With plenty of drama on holes 16 and 17 where both players gave the other a look at winning, it all came down to who could hold their nerve on the 18th hole. Sam prevailed to win the C grade event by 1 shot from Andrew, who settled on winning the nett event. Joe Bereza had the best score in C grade today and pushed him onto the scratch runner up position, while Ian Howell took the nett runner up prize. All prize winners from all club championship events will receive their prizes at Presentation Night on Saturday 22 November.

In the daily stableford event, Ben Porter rocketed back to form with an excellent 40 points to win A grade. Chris Zawirski had another very good day to take second with 39 points. Robert Biles also found some form to take third place with 38 points. The next best in A grade had 33 points, so it was an impressive show from these three golfers. Murray Johanson, who has worked tirelessly over the past 2 weekends with course maintenance, finished strongly to take out B grade with 37 points on a countback from Ben George. Ben had 38 off the stick on the front nine, and this allowed him to jump up into 3rd place in the championships. Mick Barrett has been very consistent for a few weeks and today was no different with his steady 36 points. In C grade, the players in the seeded group took out the prizes today. Joe Bereza had the best score with 34 points, with Andrew George one point back on 33. Ian Howell won third with 32 points on a countback from Sam Bridge. Dean Clack almost had one of the best pars on the 11th hole. After hitting his tee shot into the creek, he chose to go again from the tee and almost holed his next attempt. He made the putt for an impressive 4 (and a second ball birdie). Mark Moylan had some unfortunate luck today with not being able to find tee shots, returning twice to the tee to show his skills to the group waiting behind him. Nick Redgrove wins the recognition award for consistent effort over the championships. He had the same score for the first three rounds and his round 4 score was one shot higher (I will let Nick tell you what his scores were 😊). Mick Barrett found his range on the 2nd hole, hitting it to 90cm to take the NTP, while Ben George's great front nine included the NTP on the 4th hole. Chris Zawirski was probably the only person to find the 13th green today for his NTP of 900cm, while Greg Tearle took the 9th hole with 276cm.
